THE TRILLIUM 1965

COPIAH-LINCOLN JUNIOR COLLEGE

WESSON, MISS.

DEDICATION

The 1965 TRILLIUM is proudly and respectfully dedicated to Mr. Graydon L. Mullen.

Because of his devoted service and outstanding leadership, he is respected by all who know him. A member of the Copiah-Lincoln Education Association and the Mississippi Education Association, Mr. Mullen has devoted the past 17 years of his life to Co-Lin.

A Christian individual, he is treasurer of the Wesson Baptist Church and secretary of his Sunday school class, as well as being a member of the Wesson Lions Club.

The services of this untiring and patient man, Co-Lin's business manager, who has put first above all things our school and the people within it, have made Copiah-Lincoln a better place.

FEATURES

Hail, Copiah-Lincoln!

Sons and daughters true

Pledge thee our love;

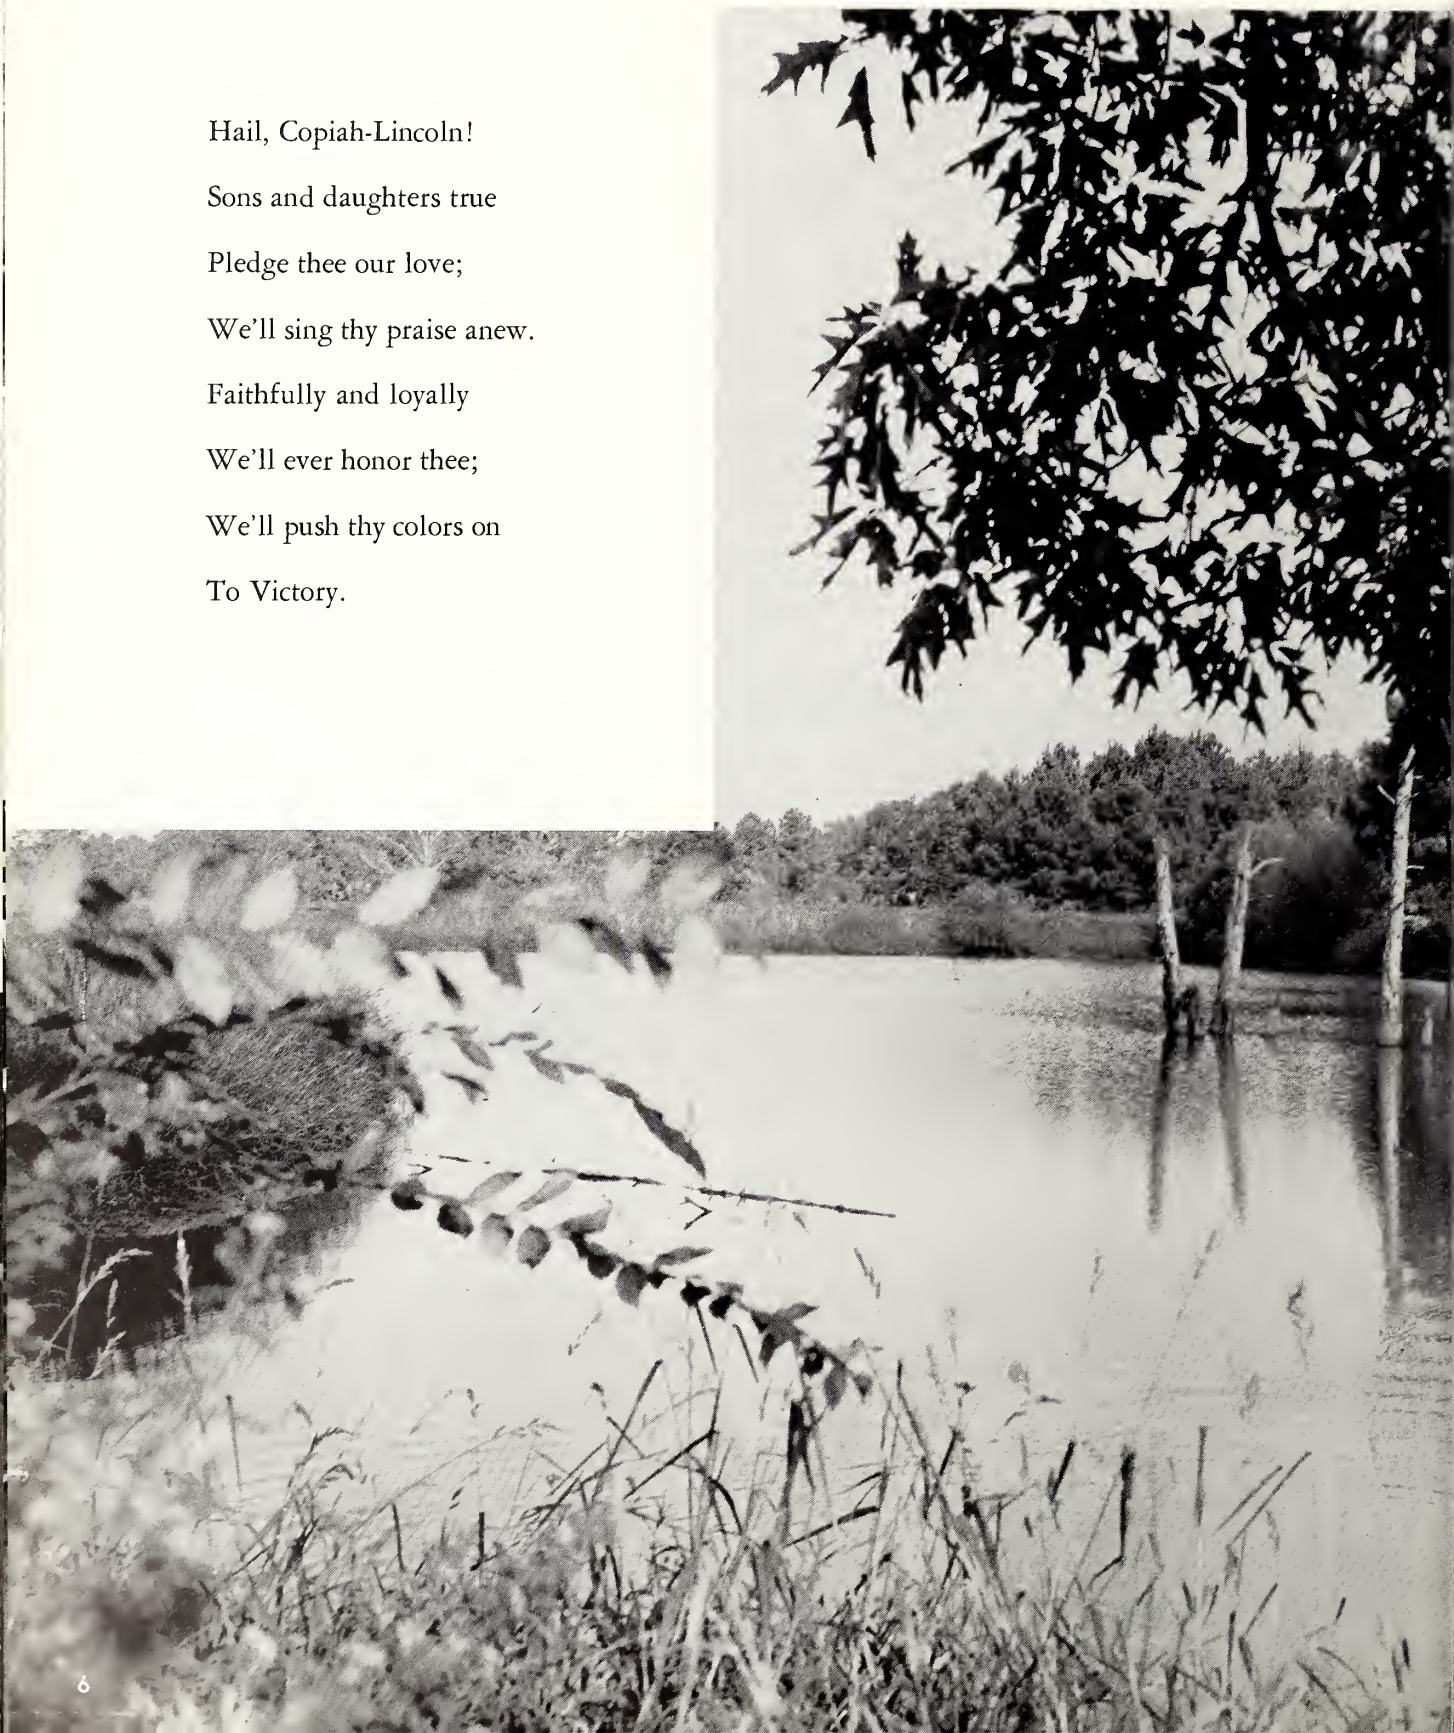
We'll sing thy praise anew.

Faithfully and loyally

We'll ever honor thee;

We'll push thy colors on

To Victory.



MATER

These eight lines bring fear to the hearts of freshmen, because some of them do not know them on Freshman Day . . . pride to the outlook of sophomores, because they are sharing in their meaning . . . memories to the minds of Co-Lin alumni, because they were a part of it all.

We thought of picturing buildings here, but they are only brick and wood. We thought of showing people here, but every person is subject to change. We chose nature in order to let you determine for yourself what your Alma Mater means to you . . . the students here.

FOREWORD

Our year was a busy one as we were engaged in the many Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and High School activities.

Many of us did not leave or go back to the dorms when the dismissal bell rang. Instead, we volunteered to make an extra contribution to Co-Lin.

Athletics provided training in sportsmanship, cooperation, teamwork, and responsibility. The organizations provided learning, light-hearted fun, and worthwhile relaxation for members.

The faculty and administration, people devoted to our growth, shared with us their wisdom, their understanding, and their faith in our potential.

All these elements combined to make a student at Copiah-Lincoln a well-rounded, capable, and competent individual in today's society.

CO-LIN

To Copiah-Lincoln we come from everywhere. We come with different hopes, dreams, and aspirations. We create a nucleus of diversified interests. Each person has his own ideas and ideals, and each has a goal. For some, this goal becomes a reality, while for others it is one never to be reached.

College causes most people's world to change in its scope. Things become more real, education more meaningful, friendships more genuine.

While here, our lives are transformed, for it is here that we begin to pass from adolescence to adulthood. No one can say when this metamorphosis takes place, and few can say why, but even fewer can deny it.

EDUCATOR,

CIVIC LEADER,

CHURCH WORKER,

AND STATESMAN

PRESIDENT F. M. FORTENBERRY

MESSAGE TO SOPHOMORE CLASS AND CO-LIN TRILLIUM

In years to come your yearbook, the Co-Lin Trillium, will be one of your most cherished possessions. We always look forward with much anticipation to the delivery of "The Trillium" because it represents through words and pictures every facet of campus life.

Most of us take the Trillium for granted; however, if we would stop for a few moments and evaluate our yearbook, it would be quite evident that many, many hours of work and planning are put into this project in order for you to have this excellent publication. Certainly all of us owe a special "Thank you" to the members of the Trillium staff, the sponsor, and the sophomore class for their efforts on our behalf.

I should like to challenge personally those of you who are responsible for this book and all of the other students at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College to get the most from the opportunities that are offered you during your junior college years. If ever in the history of mankind our world needed dedicated, intelligent leadership, it is now. That leadership will either be provided by this generation of fine American young men and women or will come from other areas of the world and other people whose philosophies and ideologies are completely foreign to our way of thinking. Let us, therefore, urge each of you to prepare yourselves for places of responsibility in our future.

Our hope and prayer for each of you is that you will find your place of service in your respective community and that you will assume your full obligations as outstanding citizens and leaders in our state and nation.

Very sincerely yours,

F. M. Fortenberry

A belated Happy Birthday, Mr. Fortenberry, and thank you!

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

The statement, "With progress comes perfection," could well be the motto of Copiah-Lincoln. The completion of new additions to our school and our capable, experienced personnel have made it one of the finest educational institutions in the state.

The faculty of Co-Lin helps the student grow mentally and physically. Always available for extra help and advice, they answer above and beyond the call of duty.

Behind our faculty stand our administration—the framework of our school. A heavy load is placed upon their shoulders as the various facets of our school, from student activities to curriculum planning, must be coordinated.

A measure of gratitude is owed to the Board of Trustees. Although we often do not realize that they are working quietly "behind the scenes," our board is at the head of the administrative functions of Copiah-Lincoln.

We, the students, would like to say to all of you, who have played such a major role in our school life, a very sincere, "Thank you."

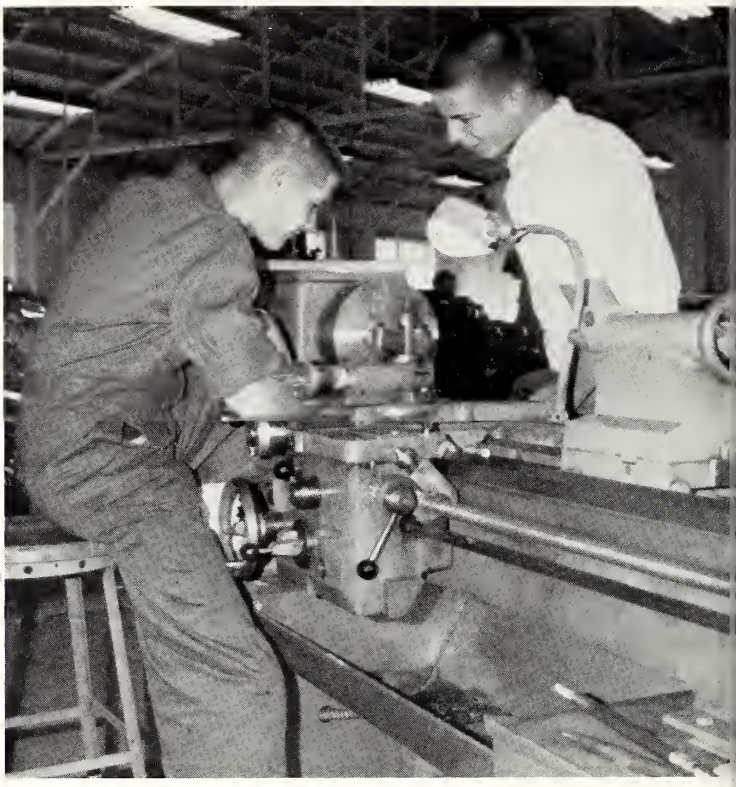
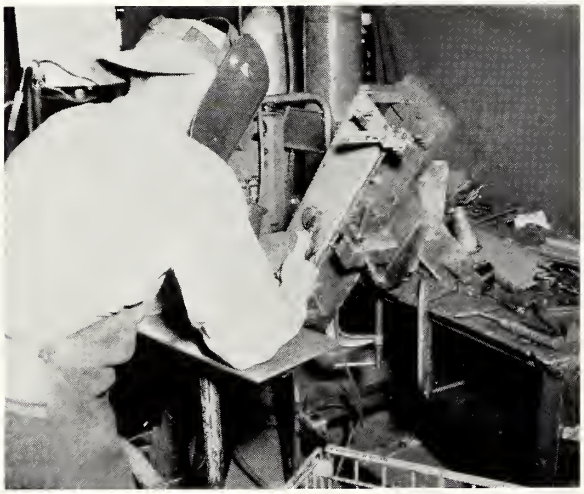
VOCATIONAL - TECHNICAL





COPIAH-LINCOLN'S recently-expanded vocational-technical department offers unusual opportunity to young men in this area. The vocational division trains auto mechanics, machinists, and welders.

The technical division is a two-year terminal course offering drafting and design, building construction, and mechanical technology. The industrial arts program is a college preparatory course leading to a major in that field.

THE CO-LIN SHOW AND

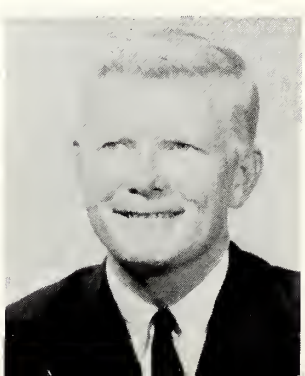
Director
Mr. Clyde
Wilson



The third oldest group of its kind in the United States, the Colettes are much in demand for performances in parades, at conventions, and for various civic and social clubs. This year the Colettes were chosen to represent Mississippi at the National County Agents Convention in New Orleans. The Mississippi Jaycees have chosen the Co-Lin Show Band and Colettes to represent the State Jaycees at their national conventions in Louisville, Ky. and Dallas, Texas, for the last two years. Mr. Clyde Wilson, band director at Co-Lin for six years, can remember many highlights of the organization. The Cherry Blossom Festival, the Cotton Carnival, major Mississippi parades, and many other performances have been attended by the group. Choreographer for the Colettes is Mrs. Betty Jo Stuart of Brookhaven.

RINGO and his fans.

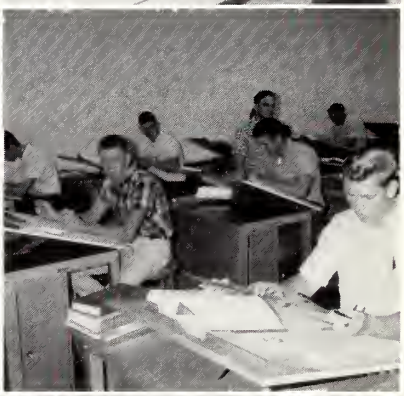
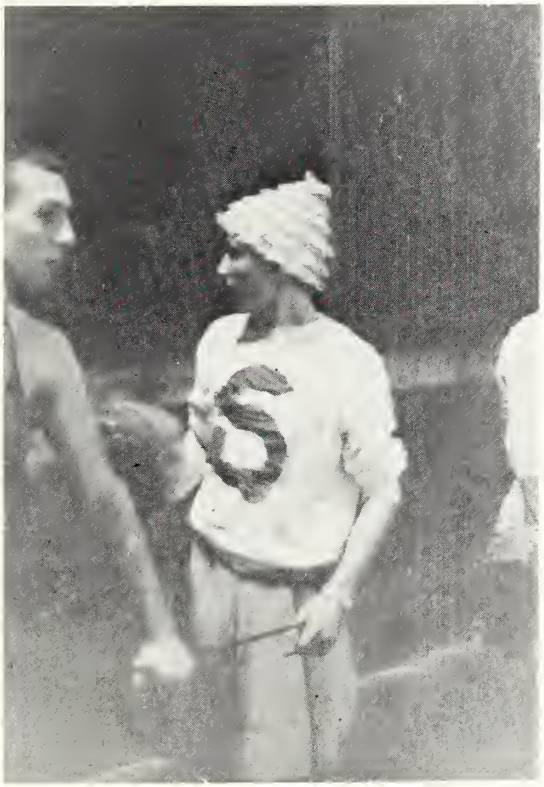
"Look, if you take one more picture before we're ready, I'm going to bust you in the mouth with this tray!"

GRIDIRON GIANTS



This picture isn't too good, but these girls were great!



"Alright, on two, everybody hit the little red-faced guy with the short arms."

"Okay, go ahead and watch the Mickey Mouse Club; see if I care."

Wait until you're in a reminiscent mood five . . . ten . . . fifteen years from now. Then, when you pick up your yearbook to renew old memories, take a minute to read this ad. You'll find that then (as now) MP&L is ready and able to supply plenty of electricity for all your power needs. That's because at MP&L we plan and build ahead.
